Land for sale in Morón de la Frontera

Magnificent rustic finca, located 10 km from Morón de la Frontera. With an extension of 67 hectares, this property is characterised by its varied topography, which includes fertile plains and slightly sloping land ideal for various crops. In a community with a strong agricultural tradition such as the Andalusian one, it is proposed the exploitation of dry crops such as olive trees, vines, almond trees, coexisting with the existing areas of wild scrubland and wild olive trees in the steepest areas, thus generating a wild landscape of great interest. Given the large size of the land, it is possible to install photovoltaic panels isolated from the grid for electricity supply. The plot is sold with the possibility of carrying out an Andalusian farmhouse type building project, a symbol of Andalusian rural architecture and its relatio...
